To

The Deputy Secretary to the Govt of Mysore

Sir,

I have the honour to submit herewith, the Beler Taluk Amildar report No ¹⁰⁶/₅₃₆ of 15th Inst sent to the Deputy District Commissioner requesting permission, as enclosed, to utilize the accumulated savings of the Tasdik & also the Tasdik amount for April of the Beler Taluk, for Sar-karpau' during the car festival of Shri Gama Kesava Swami at Beler.
There is at present an accumulated Saving of Rs 115--2-1 on account of the Gabane, - sufficient to meet the feeding cost during the festival.

But in your No 520 dated 7th December 1894, you observe ²⁷⁻⁹⁴ that utilization of the accumulated savings of Ramnathpur Gabane for the Subarpane, without the previous sanction of Government, is highly irregular & if there had been any manual to utilize the Tassik of the Gabane for the Subarpane, the feeding of the Gabane should have been stopped, & the savings effected thereby utilized therefore. Should you object to the savings now available from here, taken for this purpose, the feeding in future months will be discontinued as suggested by you for a period sufficient to allow the accumulation of amount of feed costs now incurred

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Yours most obt. Servant

On repeated references to the Taluk, the present Amildar at last submitted a list of expenditure bearing no date, prepared by a Gnnasta and not signed by any Officer, with the explanation that, no other records and vouchers than the one now submitted were forthcoming in the Taluk. The Official who prepared the list explains that, the provisions detailed in the list were purchased in the Bazaar and other market places on Cash payment and no vouchers were obtained as he was quite new to the work. The present Amildar of Hole Narsipur Chowdaiya who was then at Belur, Certifies that, the Santarpani was satisfactorily Conducted
